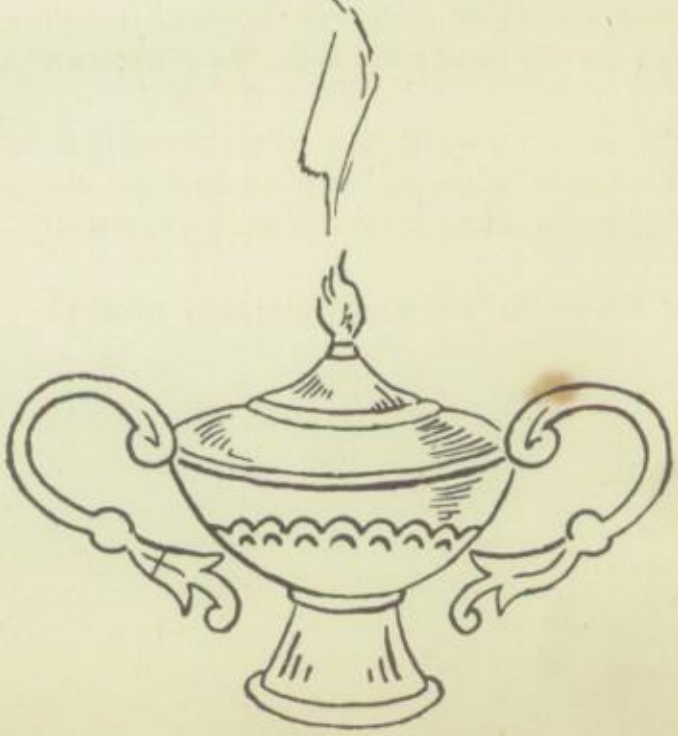
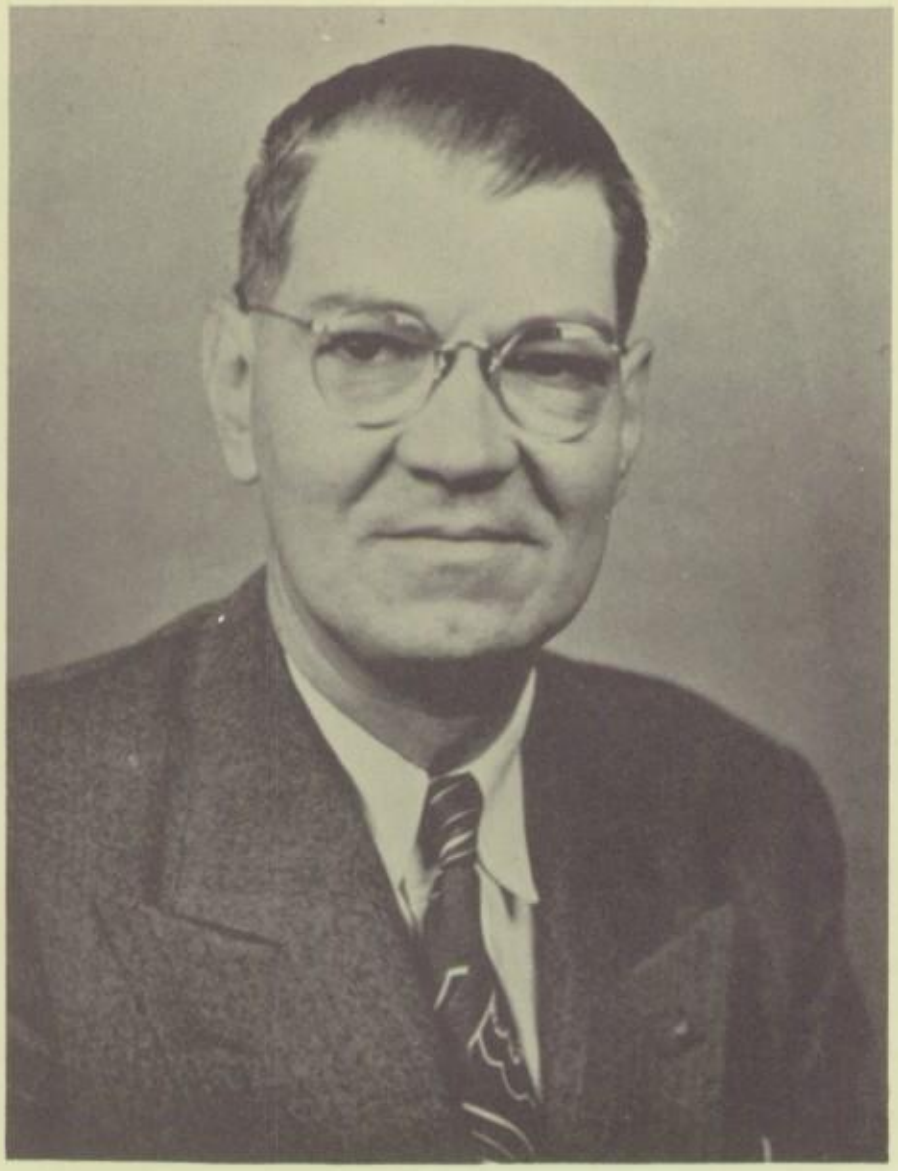
DEDICATION





Dedication

We, the Senior Class of Liberty Township School, wish to dedicate the 1950 edition of the Liberty Bell to Mr. Richard Oswald.

For six years Mr. Oswald has been principal at Liberty. He has given freely of his knowledge to help us and so we take this opportunity to humbly show him our appreciation and gratitude.

To you, Mr. Oswald, we dedicate this annual.

SEATED: Julia Wittenmyer, Mrs. Wilson, Charles Shull.

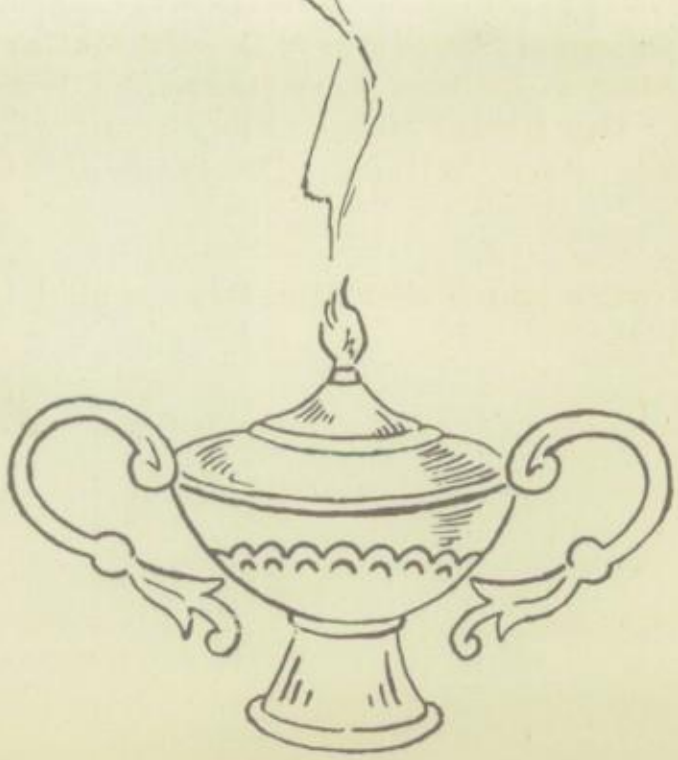
GRADUATES



Class of '50

We, the class of '50, have wound our ways to the height of fashion during our four years at Liberty High School.

We congregated at Liberty in September of '47 with an enrollment of twenty-nine of which nine members were from Benton Ridge. We were sponsored by Mr. Gonso. As class officers, we elected Fred Hissong, President; Doyle Tuttle, Vice-President; Donald McCartney, Secretary and Treasurer; Student Council representatives were Doris Niswander and Jimmy Rettig. The Seniors sponsored our initiation, which was held at the skating rink in Findlay and to which the whole school was invited.

When we returned to school in '48, as Sophomores, there were twenty-six members. Our class officers were Charles Shull, President; Estella Beck, Vice-President; Donald McCartney, Secretary and Treasurer; to represent our class on the Student Council were Julia Wittenmyer and John Cole. Doris Niswander left us to enter the Mt. Cory School and Alice Carins went to Findlay. Ruby Crammer and Patricia Price joined us that year. We were sponsored by Mr. Gonso, an efficient leader.

In the fall of '49 we started our third year at Liberty with twenty-three members. Our class officers were Estella Beck, President; Julia Wittenmyer, Vice-President; Donna Taylor, Secretary; Donald McCartney, Treasurer. To serve on Student Council we chose Beatrice Clymer and Charles Shull. Pauline Benjamin and Richard Routson entered the Findlay High School; Ruby Crammer and Junior Hoenicke withdrew and Gerald Hardin moved to Leipsic. The Junior play, "Love Is Too Much Trouble," was given under the direction of our class sponsor, Mrs. Hanline. The Junior and Senior banquet was held in the social room of the Y. M. C. A. in Findlay.

Twenty-one eager Seniors entered the home room in '50 to finish our last year triumphantly. As class officers we chose Estella Beck, President; Howard Foltz, Vice-President; Julia Wittenmyer, Secretary; Donald McCartney, Treasurer. To represent our class on the Student Council were Beatrice Clymer and Dick Rantz. Vernon Misamore had withdrawn.. Our Senior play, "The Night Owl," was given under the direction of our class sponsor, Mrs. Wilson. The class of '50 has been very active in sports, fun and work.

The year's activities were ended with May Day on May 12; Baccalaureate on May 14; and Commencement, May 16.

Class Will

We, the Senior Class of 1950, will and bequeath the following unforgettable traits, supreme characteristics and invaluable possessions.

Article I — To Mrs. Wilson, we will the privilege of teaching all morons left after we have graduated. We know you appreciated us.

Article II — To the Juniors, we will our dull English class, which we and our teacher will never forget.

Article III — To the Sophomores, we will our ability to skip school and get away with it.

Article IV — To the Freshmen, we will all the chewing gum left under Senior desks. Don't chew too hard.

Article V — Charles Shull wills his path to Benton Ridge to Bill Inbody. We hope it serves his purpose as well as it did for Chuck.

To Rosemary Wonder, Estella Beck wills her excess boy friends. Make your choice carefully.

Dick Rantz wills his Hudson to Bill Conaway. We hope you have the same luck knocking down telephone poles.

Marian Arnold wills her quiet and timid ways to Jerry Swisher. This may keep you out of detention hall.

To Dan Gerber, Dick Brown wills his wise remarks. Doyle Tuttle wills his ability to get stuck in creeks to anyone who thinks it might be fun.

Donna Taylor wills her Frankie to Mary Lou Brobst, because of her need of boy friends.

Fred Hissong wills his liking for short haircuts to Jo Ann Way.

Harry Briggs wills his ability to sleep in class and get away with it to Dorsey Cotter.

Pat Price wills her late hours to Marilyn Brannon. The dead line is 3:00 A. M. of course.

Richard Oberholtzer wills his giant stature of 6 foot 5 inches to Johnny Hanna. We see the need for it, Johnny.

John Cole wills his ways with Mr. Stormont to Jerry Fry.

Beatrice Clymer wills her diamond ring to Miss Shank. We hope Joe takes the hint.

Eugene Lunn wills his brilliant ways to Verdette Compton. Better be careful, Verdette.

Julia Wittenmyer wills her place as cheerleader to Mary Lou Arnold. Try to jump higher Mary.

Howard Foltz wills his ability to play cupid and get anyone in an embarrassing position to Donnie Reigle. We hope you have as much luck as he did.

Beverly Shepard wills her privilege of getting mad and glad again to David Hissong.

To Mr. Howard, Don McCartney wills his powerful Plymouth. More floating power, Coach.

Margaret Knepper wills her place as typing editor of the annual to Delores Price.

Merrill Wiler wills his way to get along with Sophomore girls to Karl Williamson. More power to you.

Jim Rettig wills his cigarettes to Ralph Taylor. Don't get sick, Windy.

We hereby set our hand this 11th day of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and fifty, and declare this to be our last will and testament. In witness thereof we sign this document.

Class Prophecy

Just fifteen years ago the class of 1950 graduated from Liberty High School. Since I haven't seen my classmates of "'50" for a long time, I decided to spend my vacation traveling around and looking up the members of my graduating class.

I started my vacation on a lovely day in June. The first member of the class that I met was Margaret Knepper, living in Cleveland. She was working as a private secretary to the well known lawyer, Howard Foltz. I went with Margaret to the office to talk to Howard. He said that Margaret could take a well earned vacation at this time. So off we went.

While we were going through Pennsylvania, we saw a beautiful church, and decided to go in and look around. When we opened the door we heard organ music, and much to our surprise we found that the organ was being played by Beverly Shepard. She told us that she had been organist in this church for over five years.

We arrived in New York two days later and decided to visit the radio station. The entertainers for the program that we chanced to see, were none other than Julia Wittenmyer and Don McCartney. They both had advanced a lot in acting since the Senior play of "'50." As we were leaving the radio station, we happened to see Fred Hissong getting out of a car. He told us that he was a coach at Cornell University and had been there for the past six years. When we asked whether he knew where any of the other class members were, he said that we would find Pat Price and Donna Taylor in Florida.

We decided that we would spend a few days relaxing in Florida. Our first day there we saw both Donna and Pat. They were the owners of one of the hotels there. The next day we went swimming and found the life guards to be Dick Brown and Harry Briggs.

Margaret and I both wanted to see a rodeo, so after a few days of relaxation, we started out for Arizona. Stopping for gas one day, we found one of the attendants to be Merrill Wiler. He informed us that the owner of the station was Gene Lunn, but he was away on business so we were unable to see him.

We decided to stay at a dude ranch while we were in Arizona. We stopped a policeman that was walking down the street, and asked if he could direct us to a dude ranch. You can imagine our surprise when we realized that the policeman was Richard Oberholtzer. He gave us directions to a dude ranch owned by Dick Rantz and John Cole. After we had made ourselves confortable at the ranch we asked whether there would be a rodeo soon. We learned that there would be one in two days. The day of the rodeo arrived and scheduled for the main riding event was Charles Shull. Jimmie Rettig took first in the calf roping contest.

We heard that Estella Beck was a nurse in a hospital in California, so that was our next stop. When we got to California we decided to take a taxi to the hospital instead of driving there ourselves. The taxi driver turned out to be Doyle Tuttle. Estella was off duty when we got to the hospital so we all went uptown to do some shopping and talk over old times. The clerk that waited on us in one of the stores was Marian Arnold. She told us that she enjoyed her job very much.

Having seen all of our classmates, we said good-bye to Estella and headed back for Ohio. Margaret's vacation being almost up, I dropped her off in Cleveland and then left for my home.

It has been a very enjoyable vacation seeing all of my fellow graduates of 1950.

ACTIVITIES

FIRST ROW: Charles Shull, Estella Beck, Mrs. Gongwer, Howard Foltz.
SECOND ROW: Margaret Ridge, Verdette Compton, Barbara Wittenmyer, Janet Ferrell.

National Honor Society

The purpose of the National Honor Society is to create enthusiasm for scholarship, stimulate the desire to render service, promote leadership and develop character.

The standard upon which membership is based, is scholarship, service, leadership and character. To gain membership a three point average must be had by the student. This means he must carry at least a "B" average.

The Senior initiated members are Estella Beck, Howard Foltz and Charles Shull. Members initiated into the society this year are Verdette Compton, Margaret Ridge, Janet Ferrell and Barbara Wittenmyer.

SEATED: James Montgomery, Beatrice Clymer, Richard Rantz, Jo Ann Way, Barbara Wittenmyer.
STANDING: John Hanna, Weston Orwick, Jerry Bosse, Dorthy Dukes, Bernice Bird, Doris Wells, Freddy DeVore.

Student Council

The Student Council representatives for the school year were: Seventh grade, Freddy DeVore and Doris Wells; eighth grade, Weston Orwick and Bernice Bird; Freshmen, Jerry Bosse and Jo Ann Way; Sophomores, John Hanna and Dorothy Dukes; Juniors, James Montgomery and Barbara Wittenmyer; Seniors, Dick Rantz and Beatrice Clymer.

We carried on several activities this year. At the games we sold football programs.

The Student Council joined the National Student Council. Our officers were: President, Dick Rantz; Vice-President, James Montgomery; Secretary-Treasurer, Jo Ann Way. Mr. Oswald was our sponsor.

SITTING: Mrs. Gongwer, Estella Beck, Mary Roller, Mr. Oswald.

Newspaper Staff

The Liberty Eagle Staff has worked with much enthusiasm to give to its subscribers a monthly paper.

From the newspaper fund the staff has purchased Venetian blinds for the newspaper room.

The staff wishes to thank all the people who have given ads and those who have subscribed for the paper.

The staff is as follows:

Mixed Chorus

Filling our music room each Friday is a group eager to sing.

The first performance, which was an all chorus program, was at the November P. T. A. The numbers were "Now The Day Is Over" by Barnby --soloist, James Montgomery; "Psalm One Hundred;" "The Lord's Prayer" by Mallotte; "Swing Low Sweet Chariot," a Negro Spiritual--soloist, Bill Inbody; "Praise We Sing To Thee" by Haydn.

The Mixed Chorus helped to furnish music for the chapel program at Christmas time. Their numbers were "Winter Wonderland," "Jingle Bells," "Silent Night" and "O Come All Ye Faithful."

The choruses went to Ohio Northern University at Ada to participate in the district contest. Certain members were chosen to take part in the County Musical.

Under the direction of Mrs. West and with the accompaniment of Mary E. Roller, we had a very successful year and hope to have many more like it.

SITTING: Mrs. West.
STANDING: John Cole, Merrill Wiler, Wade Benson, Jack Hook, James Montgomery, Charles Shull, Bill Inbody, Maurice Bosse.

Boys' Ensemble

The Boys' Ensemble this year is made up of John Cole, Merrill Wiler, Jack Hook, Wade Benson, Maurice Bosse, Bill Inbody, James Montgomery and Charles Shull.

They plan to enter the spring auditions to be held at McComb and Bowling Green.

They enjoyed a successful year under the direction of our music supervisor, Mrs. West.

SITTING: Mrs. West.
STANDING: Barbara Wittenmyer, Mary Lou Brobst, Mary Roller, Janet Ferrell, Mary Jane Light, Elizabeth Hissong, Phyllis Thomas, Helen Radabaugh.

Girls' Ensemble

This year Elizabeth Hissong, Phyllis Thomas, Mary Jane Light, Janet Ferrell, Helen Radabaugh, Mary Lou Brobst, Mary E. Roller and Barbara Wittenmyer were chosen from the Girls' Chorus to be in the ensemble.

Their first appearance this year was for the November P. T. A. They sang "Jubilate Deo" by W. A. Mozart.

The ensemble is participating in the auditions at McComb and Bowling Green this spring and they hope to get to go to State.

With the wonderful direction of Mrs. West the ensemble did very well this year.

FIRST ROW: Freddy DeVore, Doris Wells, Marilyn Flickinger, Barbara Beucler, Patty Decker, Marjorie Butler, Shirley Benroth, Donna Patterson, Bernice Bird, Marilyn Hottensmith, Barbara Cramner, William Rettig.

SECOND ROW: Stephen Wittenmyer, Jon Saums, Rex Siferd, Dorsey Cotter, William Misamore, Weston Orwick, Norman Shank, Roger Saums, Eugene LaRoche, Billy Fry, Ted Coats, Joe Brobst, Robert Allen, Mrs. West.

Junior High Chorus

In our music class this year we not only sang songs about other lands and their people, but we studied about their music.

The first semester we studied and made notebooks about the music of England. We found pictures and took notes from reports that were given in class.

The last semester we studied types of music, artists and composers. We enjoyed this study very much. Many interesting notebooks were made.

We all had fun looking for the material for our notebooks and we enjoyed studying these units.

FIRST ROW: Richard Oswald, Roger Zoll, Jimmie Keeler, Mary Lou Brobst, Margaret Ridge, Mary Roller, Martha Orwick, Ronald Huysman, Robert Allen.
SECOND ROW: Mrs. West, Ned Wiler, Howard Radabaugh, Tom Moorhead, Weston Orwick, Joe Brobst, Fred Hoenicke, Jack Hook, John Hanna.

Band

Under the direction of Mrs. West, the band, which was organized last year, assembled again this year. We had many new members added. Some of the members took part in the All County Band Festival.

The members of the band are:

Trumpets:	Tom Moorhead, Weston Orwick, Ronald Huysman, Robert Allen, Fred Hoenicke, Jimmy Keeler.
Clarinets:	Margaret Ridge, Martha Orwick, Mary Roller, Richard Oswald, Joe Brobst.

FIRST ROW: Estella Beck, Helen Radabaugh, Marilyn Brannan.
SECOND ROW: Janet Ferrell, Janelle Misamore.
THIRD ROW: Julia Wittenmyer.

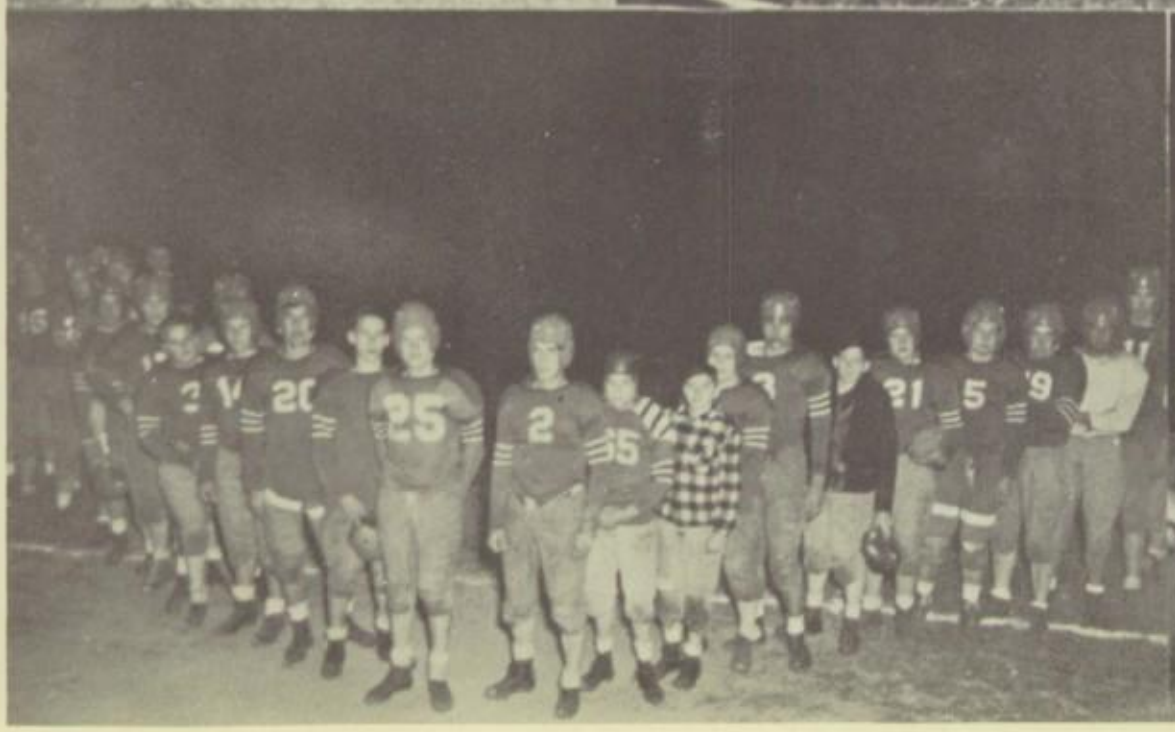
Homecoming Ceremony

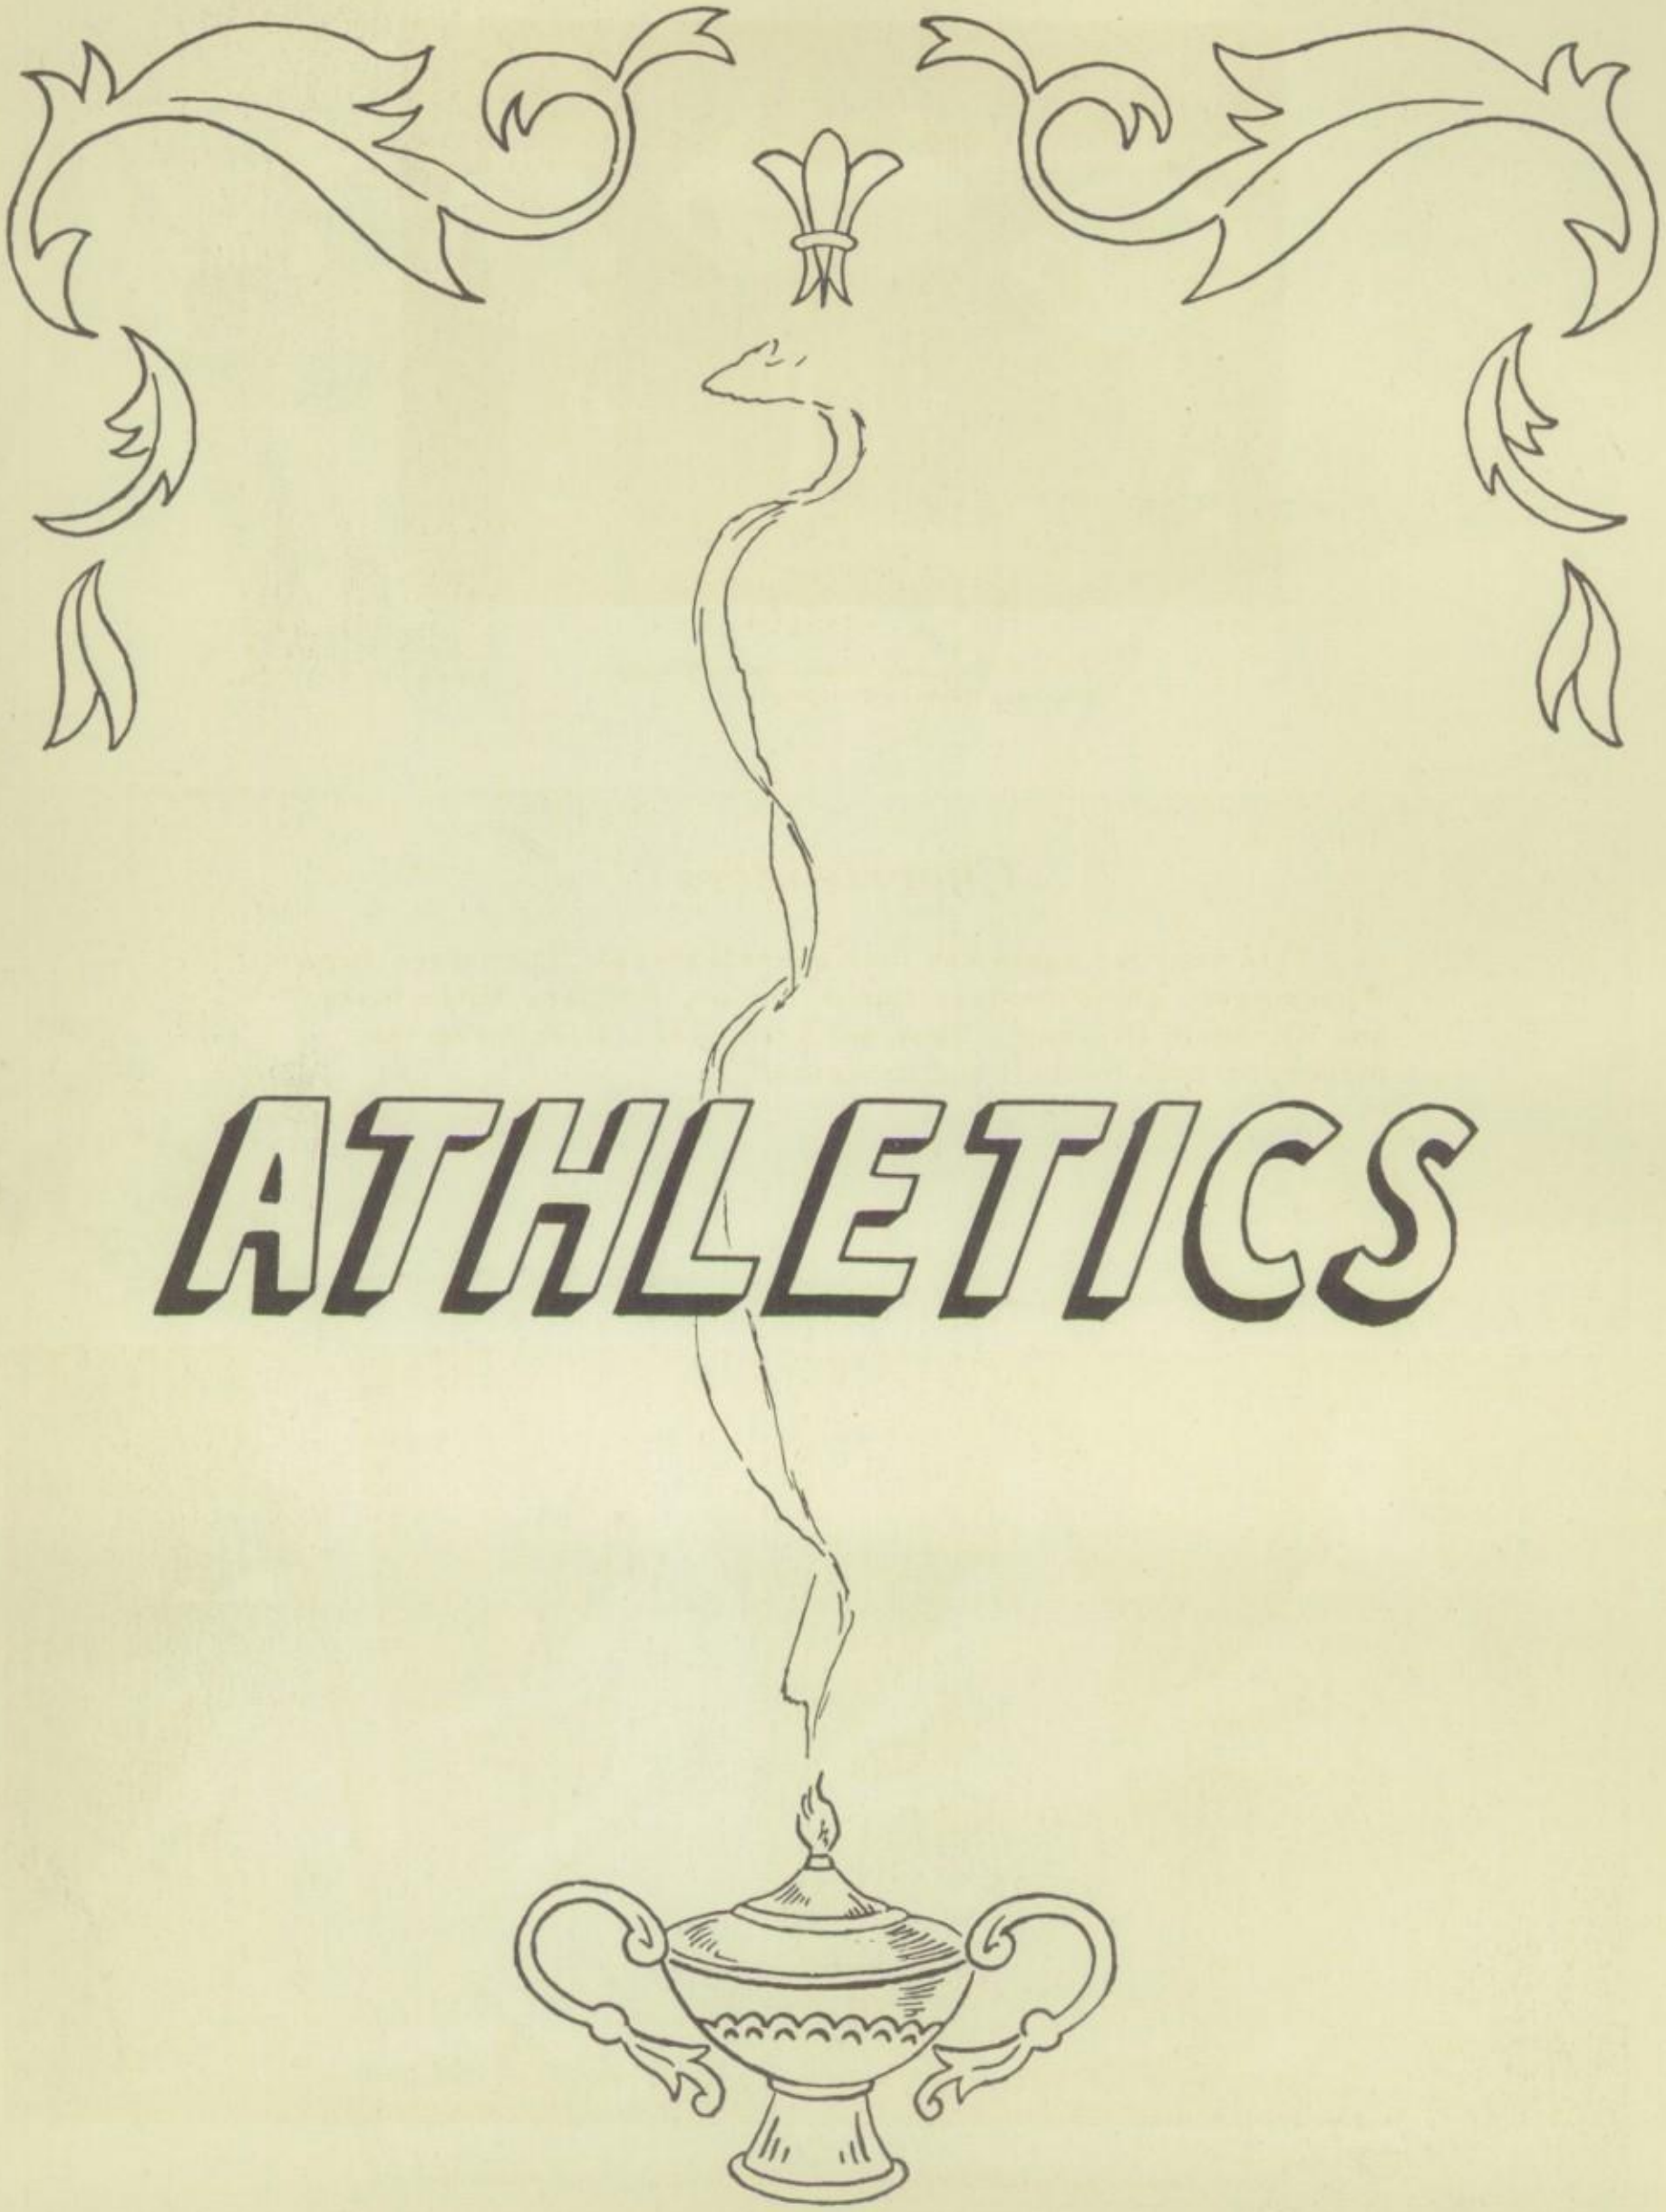
The homecoming football game was played with Mt. Blanchard October 27.

The queen was Julia Wittenmyer. Her attendants were Estella Beck, Janet Ferrell, Marilyn Brannan, Helen Radabaugh and Janelle Misamore.

County Superintendent Mr. Joseph, President of the Booster Committee Mr. Roy Neeley, and Superintendent Mr. Steele, gave dedication speeches.

Queen Julia and her attendants rode to the platform in convertibles. Julia was crowned by football captain Howard Foltz, and then gave a speech and she, accompanied by her attendants, retired to her throne.





ATHLETICS

Julia Wittenmyer, Donna Taylor, Elizabeth Hissong, Barbara Wittenmyer.

Cheerleaders

This year we again had four cheerleaders. They were Julia Wittenmyer, cheermaster, Donna Taylor, Barbara Wittenmyer and Elizabeth Hissong. They did a fine job in backing up the players in both football and basketball.

Donna Taylor, Barbara Wittenmyer, Elizabeth Hissong, Julia Wittenmyer.

Football

Liberty squad started the 1949 season with twenty-eight players reporting for practice. Coach John Howard called his squad together on August 24, 1949. They started out in grim determination to win but failed to succeed in nine attempts. There will be eight Senior lettermen graduating, but better luck for the 1950 football season. Howard Foltz acted as captain and Marlo Brannan and Hilburn Stillburger acted as managers.

KNEELING: Richard Brown, Verdette Compton, Managers.
STANDING: Jerry Fry, Jerry Swisher, Karl Williamson, Donald McCartney, Fred Hissong, Leland Wiler, Charles Shull, James Montgomery, Willard Armstrong, Richard Oberholtzer.

Basketball

Our Coach, John Howard started the basketball season with four lettermen. The boys played good sportsman-like ball.

KNEELING: Mr. Howard, Charles Shull, Fred Hissong, James Montgomery.
STANDING: Jerry Fry, Willard Armstrong, Karl Williamson, Richard Oberholtzer, Donald McCartney, Leland Wiler, Jerry Swisher.
